To the list of Appendices in the table of contents

Q Excerpts from the International Regulations for Preventing Collisions at Sea

To the Introduction, under Changes to the Rules

Prescriptions of the Canadian Yachting Association are printed in large italics.

To Part 2 – When Boats Meet (insert after the preamble)

CYA has provided Appendix Q for guidance when the International Regulations for Preventing Collisions at Sea apply.

Rule 61.2 – Protest Contents

CYA prescribes that no fee shall be charged for filing a protest or a request for redress.

Rule 64.3 – Decisions on Measurement Protests
(insert directly under the title to the rule)

CYA prescribes that the ISAF Equipment Rules of Sailing 2005–2008 shall apply to all classes racing in Canada.

Rule 68 – Damages

CYA prescribes that the owner of a boat shall be liable for all damages arising from a breach of these rules, not exceeding in amount and subject to the same limitations as provided by the Canada Shipping Act. A breach of these rules shall be considered improper navigation within the meaning and purposes of that Act.

Rule 69.1(c) – Action by a Protest Committee

CYA prescribes that the protest committee shall report such penalties or make such reports only to the CYA who will be responsible for reporting to the national authorities of the competitor and of the boat owner. The CYA will also report the penalty to the provincial sailing association and the yacht club of such competitor or boat.

Rule 69.1(d) – Action by a Protest Committee

CYA prescription to rule 69.1(c) applies.

Rule 70.2 – Appeals; Confirmation or Correction of Decisions; Rule Interpretations

CYA prescriptions to Appendix F1 and F2 apply to rules 70.1 and 70.2.

Rule 70.4 (a) – Appeals; Confirmation or Correction of Decisions; Rule Interpretations

CYA so prescribes.

App. E5.5(a) (f) – Redress

CYA prescribes that the definition of entanglement includes the case where boats subsequently become disentangled without outside help.

App. E6 – Identification on Sails (insert directly under the title to the rule)

CYA prescribes that this rule applies to Canadian boats in all classes.

App. F1 – Appeals and Requests

See CYA prescription to F2.1

App. F2.1 – Submission of Documents

CYA prescribes that:

1. An appeal of a decision under rule 69.1 or a request by a protest committee for confirmation or correction of such a decision shall be made directly to the CYA.
2. All other appeals and requests for confirmation or correction shall be made as follows:
 - (a) When the organising authority is a member or is affiliated with a yacht racing association that has established an appeals committee, an appeal or request shall first be submitted to such association:
 - (i) when the appeal or request arises out of an association event, or
 - (ii) when the appeal or request arises out of any other event of the organising authority if its provincial sailing association has not established an appeals committee.
 - (b) When the organising authority is a member or is affiliated with a provincial sailing association that has established an appeals committee and paragraph (a)(i) does not apply, an appeal or request shall first be submitted to such association.
 - (c) A yacht racing or provincial sailing association may hear an appeal or request or refer it directly to the CYA.
 - (d) When neither of paragraphs (a) or (b) applies and the organising authority is a member of or is affiliated with CYA, an appeal or request may be submitted directly to CYA.
 - (e) A decision of a yacht racing or provincial sailing association may be further appealed or referred to CYA.
 - (f) Written notice of intention to appeal further a decision of a yacht racing or provincial sailing association shall state the grounds therefor and shall be lodged with or mailed to such association and to CYA within fifteen days of receipt of the decision.

App. F2.2(e) – Submission of Documents

CYA prescribes that in the case of a further appeal to the national authority this rule shall apply to the appellant as though it was an initial appeal and to the appealed committee as though it was the protest committee.
