

Summer 2019 Instructors Wanted In Newfoundland

The Royal Newfoundland Yacht club is now hiring instructors for its 2019 season. Positions are available from teaching wet-foot programs on up through to Cansail 4 and beyond. The main season is July August, with some positions requiring availability in June/September. For instructors coming from away housing can be provided along with a car.

Come and sail on the rock and experience an incredible summer sailing at the edge of the known world!

Assets include experience at summer camps, as well as working with people with disabilities as we will be offering an accessible sailing program this summer.

Must have valid first aid, PCOC and Cansail instructor level 1+2 or higher.

Salary dependent on experience and positions already filled.
