

REGIONAL RACE OFFICER (RRO)

Effective February 1, 2023

Description

- Regional Race Officer (RRO) is the third of four levels of Sail Canada certification for Race Officers.
- An RRO is able to serve as the Race Officer (RO) with any race committee to properly run any race or regatta including provincial, regional and national championships, utilizing a variety of race and course formats.
- This responsibility typically includes:
 - Working with the Organizing Authority as a key member of the Race Committee for safe and successful on the water activities. You may also be involved in a supporting role on all official documents (e.g., Notice of Race).
 - Preparing Sailing Instructions.
 - Assigning personnel in operational roles on the water.
 - Starting and finishing races (i.e., running races) for a different group of competitors and/or boats in conditions different from those of his/her own home waters.
 - Ensure that scoring is correct and published soon after each race is completed.
- RROs must have a sufficient depth and breadth of experience and demonstrated leadership, teamwork and relationship skills to be able to go anywhere and manage any regatta likely to be held in that area.
- It is recommended that RROs be active in race management training, for example, by presenting race management topics at ARO or CRO seminars given by a Race Management Course Conductor in your area.
- RROs need both technical and people skills to work successfully with a variety of volunteers, competitors and boats in a variety of conditions as venues vary widely within regions and around the country.
- Certification is valid for four years. See RMSC Policy 1.

Requirements

- A minimum of two years' experience as CRO.
- Successful completion of the Sail Canada Advanced Race Management Course within four years prior to application. See RMSC Policy 3.
- Accumulated the minimum number of points for RRO certification as defined in the Sail Canada Race Certification Matrix.
- Evidence of experience at different venues with varying racing conditions and formats. See RMSC Policy 2 and 7.
- Have experience in all race committee jobs, including scoring.
- Agree to abide by the Sail Canada Code of Conduct.
- Have a valid Criminal Background Check on file with Sail Canada.
- Have completion of valid Safe Sport training module on file with Sail Canada.
- It is required that Sail Canada has an image of the candidate's Pleasure Craft Operator Card (PCOC) and Restricted Operator Certificate (Maritime) (ROC (M)) on file. Equivalent or superior certifications will be accepted at the discretion of the RMSC.

Training Book Requirements

- Current Racing Rules of Sailing (Sail Canada version).
- Current edition of Sail Canada Race Management Reference Manual. (available online).
- Access to World Sailing Case Book, Sail Canada Appeals Book and World Sailing Q&A's Booklet as available on www.sailing.ca and/or www.sailing.org.

Certification Process

- Certification as Sail Canada RRO is managed by Sail Canada Race Management Sub-Committee.
- Certification requires the candidate to register through the Sail Canada database.

Using the online or paper application form, be prepared to submit the following information:

- A record of successful completion of the Sail Canada Advanced Race Management course with a mark of 70% or greater. See RMSC Policy 6.
- For a regatta at which the applicant served as RO provide the following:
 - Sailing Instructions prepared by the applicant,
 - Any amendments to those Sailing Instructions used at the event
 - Final regatta results
- A contact list, including names, telephone numbers and email addresses, of nationally certified officials, such as ROs, Judges and Umpires, who have served with the applicant during his/her time as Club RO. Reference forms will be sent by the RMSC to selected referees.
- Event Log listing regattas you have run or worked on, the courses you have taken and race management training seminars you have assisted with.
- Certification requires a signed copy of the Race Officials Code of Conduct (an Appendix of the Sail Canada Code of Conduct).

Recertification Process

- Recertification as Sail Canada RRO is managed by Sail Canada Race Management Sub-Committee.
- Certification requires the candidate to register through the Sail Canada database.

Using the online or paper application form, be prepared to submit the following information:

- Event Log listing regattas you have run or worked on, the courses you have taken and race management training seminars you have assisted with.
- Accumulated the minimum number of points for RRO recertification as defined in the Sail Canada Race Certification Matrix.
- Evidence of professional development activities undertaken by the candidate. See RMSC Policy 4.
- Attendance at the Sail Canada Advanced Race Management Course (or equivalent: see RMSC Policy 3.) within past four years.
- Have a valid Criminal Background Check on file with Sail Canada.
- Have completion of valid Safe Sport training module on file with Sail Canada.
- Certification requires a signed copy of the Race Officials Code of Conduct (an Appendix of the Sail Canada Code of Conduct).

What is the next level?

If you are serious about race management you might consider working towards the National Race Officer level. A National Race Officer (NRO) is capable of planning and managing, as RO or PRO, the on the water operations of national and international championships of above average size and complexity. The NRO is familiar with all racing formats. The NRO is familiar and has experience in every area of conducting a multi class regatta from participation as a member of the organizing authority (OA) to leader of the race committee.

